ARM THAT WON WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE MAY BE AMPUTATED AS RESULT OF ACCIDENT

JIM JEFFRIES AND HIS TITLE-WINNING RIGHT ARM.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 31.—The arm that won a heavyweight title may be sacrificed under a surgeon's knife!

Jim Jeffries, former champion of the world and owner of the arm, is under the care of surgeons as the result of an accident which happened to him while on a hunting trip in the mountains near this city.

A knife Jeff was using slipped and cut deeply into his hand. Infection followed and blood poisoning set in, the hand and arm swelling to twice the normal size. Surgeons hope to save the title-winning arm but say Jeff must lose the first finger.

Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Gus

Ruhlin and Jack Munroe were victims of the Jeffries kayo while Tom Spivey, Joe Choynski, Joe Goddard, Peter Jackson and scores of other former greats found it a deadly proposition. Since retiring from the ring after his defeat at Reno Jeff has led the simple life of cafe proprietor and hunter.

These German bullets nearly took the hair off his face—it went so close. What do you think of that for a close shave?

"Well," says Pat, "in one engagement I was in one of them German shells came so close that it took the hair off me head. What price that for a haircut?" he asked pointing to his glassy poll.

Thwarted Ambition.
"When I was a boy," said the gray-haired physician, who happened to be in a reminiscent mood, "I wanted to be a soldier; but my parents persuaded me to study medicine."

"Oh, well," rejoined the sympathetic druggist, "such is life. Many a man with wholesale aspirations has to content himself with a retail business."
